

Teacher Mulongo

Lawrence A. Konjuro
English

This is my teacher.

Her name is Teacher Mulongo.

She loves me a lot.

Teacher Mulongo teaches us the alphabet and the vowels.

I can say the letters a, e, i, o, u.

she has taught us the colours red, blue, green, yellow and orange.

During nap time Teacher
Mulongo sings us to sleep.

She sings a lullaby to us.

The lullaby goes like this:

Jonnie ,Jonnie
yes Mama eating sugar?
No Mama,
open your mouth
haaha...haaha.

Teacher Mulongo knows many stories.

She tells us a different story each day of the week.

On Monday, she tells us stories about great men.

On Tuesday, she tells us stories about great women.

On Wednesday, she tells us stories about special days.

On Thursday, she tells us stories about our environment.

And on Friday, Teacher Mulongo asks us to tell our own stories to the class.

Our teacher is the best teacher in the world!

When I grow up, I want to be a teacher.

Teacher Mulongo

Writer: Lawrence A. Konjuro

Illustration: Vusi Malindi, Alice Toich, Jesse Breytenbach, Wiehan de Jager, Mia du Plessis, Karlien de Villiers, Cathy Feek and Franz Phooko

Adapted By: Bukheye Mulongo Christopher and Rose Alungho
Language: English

This story was developed at a workshop held at Kenyatta University, with Kenyatta University students, run by Dr Adelheid Bwire. This book is published in memory of student teacher Lawrence A Konjuro.

© African Storybook Initiative

This work is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution
(CC-BY 4.0) Version 4.0 International Licence

Disclaimer: You are free to download, copy, translate or adapt this story and use the illustrations as long as you attribute or credit the original author/s and illustrator/s.

Saide
South African Institute for Distance Education

www.africanstorybook.org
A Saide Initiative