DRESSING UP.

Mum, mum I am going to participate in a play at school, “ Can I have your best hat for the play?” said Anna.

Can I have your new dress?

No you can not, said Mum.

It is too big for you to wear and I want to wear it, said Mum.

Well, can I have your new red coat? Said
Anna.
Don't be silly, said her Mum
I will think of something you can take.

Anna cried and cried
I want a hat, or a dress, or a red coat, she said.
Mum was cross
Your are very silly, said Mum.
I have told you Anna.
You can not have my hat, or a dress, or a red coat.
Now it is bedtime.

The next morning Anna ran down for breakfast.

Have you got something for me Mum? Said
Anna.

Yes.

It is in this box.

You can open it at school.

Anna went to school

She took the box with her.

It was too small to have a dress in it.

It was too big to have a hat in it.

Hello children, said Miss Jones.

Have you got something to wear in the play?

.I have got my Dad's hat, said Peter

I have got my Grandmother dress, said
Emma

I have got my Mum's old coat, said Billy

That is good, said Miss Jones

What have you brought Anna?

I do not know.

My mum gave me this box

She gave the box to Miss Jones

Miss Jones took off the lid of the box

The children all wanted to see what was inside the box

Look, said Miss Jones

It is a pair of silver shoes.

Ooooh,said the children.

We can act a very good play now.
We act Cinderella and the silver slippers, said Miss Jones
And you can be Cinderella, Anna
Then all the children clapped and Anna was very happy.
