

The Frog and the Lizard

Beatres Nabune
English

The frog and the lizard were once good friends .

They used to live at the beach which was the frog's compound.

The frog lived in water but could always come out to the beach.

The lizard lived on one of the tall dry trees near the beach.

One day, the lizard requested the frog to pay a visit to him at his home on the tree.

“I cannot climb a tree” a frog explained to his friend, “I will help you to climb” answered the lizard.

They then agreed to a certain date,
the one frog could pay the visit.

The day came and the lizard tied a rope onto the frog's tail.

He started pulling the frog upwards the tree .the frog cried out “am feeling a lot of pain, the lizard however, continued pulling the rope upwards the frog’s tail got removed and the Frog fell down.

The frog lost his tail to date the frog does not have its tail.

The Frog and the Lizard

Writer: Beatres Nabune

Illustration: Hélder de Paz Alexandre, Wiehan de Jager, Graham Paterson, Rob Owen, Maya Marshak and Marion
Drew
Language: English

© Mugulu Integrated Primary School

This work is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution
(CC-BY 4.0) Version 4.0 International Licence

Disclaimer: You are free to download, copy, translate or adapt this story and use the illustrations as long as you attribute or credit the original author/s and illustrator/s.

Saide
South African Institute for Distance Education

www.africanstorybook.org
A Saide Initiative