

WAMAJE THE WEAK MAN

Monica Tulina
English

Once upon a time, there was a weak man.

This man was called Wamaje.

Wamaje did not want to work at all.

He was an idler.

Wamaje had no good clothes but rugs.

This man had no hut to live in.

He slept outside at night and watched the moon and stars as they gave out light.

One day, it rained heavily

The night was very cold.

Wamane felt very cold.
He started thinking of making a hut
for himself.

He sung, "Tomorrow I will build myself a hut" ×4
In the morning when the sun
started shining clearly,

Wamaje became warm. He changed the song.
“It is hot why should I build a hut?”
×4

WAMANE THE WEAK MAN

Writer: Monica Tulina

Illustration: Rob Owen, Alex Zablon, Benjamin Mitchley, Wiehan de Jager, Catherine Groenewald, Microsoft Clip
Art, Genevieve Terblanche and Jesse Breytenbach Language: English

the story was created by Tulina
Monica , a teacher at Bubaali primary school in Butaleja District, Uganda

© African Storybook Initiative, 2014

This work is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution
(CC-BY 4.0) Version 4.0 International Licence

Disclaimer: You are free to download, copy, translate or adapt this story and use the illustrations as long as you attribute or credit the original author/s and illustrator/s.

Saide
South African Institute
for Distance Education

www.africanstorybook.org
A Saide Initiative